

MACCLESFIELD TOWN FOOTBALL CLUB TIME LINE

19th CENTURY
1873	*Football first played in Macclesfield on the formation of the 8 th Cheshire Rifle Volunteers team.
1874	*The year used as the anniversary of the formation of the football club. *Other than a mention in a book written by John Earles relating 50 years of football in Macclesfield (1875-1925), that Association Rules were adopted in 1874, there is no evidence of a team named 'Macclesfield' being formed at this time. He is very vague about the date of formation of the club, writing that the football team had been established over half a century ago. *The Macclesfield correspondent in the Staffordshire Sentinel newspaper wrote in 1888 that football was first played in Macclesfield in 1873 but that was not Macclesfield FC which was formed some years later. *Graham Phythian, in his book Saga of the Silkmen published in 2001, states in his very first sentence 'the beginnings of Macclesfield Town Football Club can be traced, at least in part , to the endeavours of a group of young men known as the 8 th Cheshire Rifle Volunteers.'
1876	*Formation of Macclesfield Football Club following the merger of 8 th Cheshire Rifle Volunteers and the Olympic Cricket Club. *First football match as Macclesfield FC played on 28 th October 1876 against Stoke who won 1-0.
